

North Carolina School Community Health Alliance (NCSCHA) is proud to announce its 2011 Annual Conference, "Attention to Prevention and Integration of Care," on December 5 & 6, 2011, at the Brownstone Hotel & Conference Center in Raleigh, NC.

The mission of NCSCHA is to support accessible, affordable, quality health care in North Carolina school-based and school-linked health centers. Fifty centers across the state, with a number of others in planning stages, provide quality health care services that help our young people be healthy and succeed in school. NCSCHA is a nonprofit membership and advocacy alliance. We work to build local, statewide and national support for school-based and school-linked health centers through education, technical assistance, networking, communication, and statewide partnerships.

NCSCHA welcomes exhibitor or vendor participation in our conference. We see mutual areas of interest between your organization and our planned audience. This is a great opportunity for you to reach administrative and clinical staff in existing centers, those who want to learn more about building centers in their own communities, and partner organizations and individuals who support our efforts and have practical use for your services.

Our Conference is a two-day meeting with a reception for all attendees on Monday evening at 5:00 pm. There will be nine opportunities during the conference for contact with attendees, including morning registration, meals, breaks, poster session, and pre-reception. Continuing Education credits will be offered to attendees by SEAHEC.

Please print, complete and mail the form below with your check to NCSCHA, 1901 South Live Oak Parkway, Wilmington, NC 28403, if you are interested in joining us. The registration cost for for-profit exhibitors is $250.00, non-profit exhibitors, $100.00. We will include your name on the program as an exhibitor/sponsor, if we receive your check by November 12. The agenda and registration materials will be on www.ncscha.org in September.

We look forward to hearing from you and seeing you at the conference.

Sincerely,

Connie Parker
